

EVERYDAY EXPORTS HEADED TO PUERTO VALLARTA TO GIVE THANKS AND TO SERVE!

WHEN: November 22 to December 1, 2008

WHERE: Vineyard Church in Puerto Vallarta, Jalisco, MX with missionaries Ric & Joy Lehman.

WHAT: Generally, we hand out water at the dump, pass out popsicles /toys in the poorer areas, and pour concrete floors for people that just have dirt floors. We could also do some construction (building a modular home for example). We may take out a mobile kitchen and cook hamburgers or hotdogs out in a colonia. We will also use all team members on Sunday mornings to assist in worship. We will likely go to the orphanage and the nursing home and we will be having an after school kids camp a couple of days this week. If any of the team members speak Spanish, we will use them for translation. There will be several opportunities for Servant Evangelism especially given that we are going the week of Thanksgiving.

HOW: We will fly. We will take buses/ vans to the church.

COST: The cost is $1350. We have reserved 20 seats on a Frontier nonstop flight. We will need to have the money in for airfare by August 15. The payment due date schedule is as follows:

Application + $500.00 due July 15, 2008

$275.00 due September 1, 2008

$200.00 due September 30, 2008

$200.00 due October 15, 2008

$175.00 due November 2, 2008

*We must have the total for airfare by August 20, 2008 since the seats are reserved. The above is all tax deductible if made out to the church (Vineyard) and placed in an envelope marked Everyday Exports Attn: Suzanne Barslund 1201 Riverside Ave. Fort Collins, Colo 80524 with 1108PV in the memo line. It is important that payments be made by check and not cash. It is also important that the above be included in any support letters you send out so that you receive proper credit.

WHY: We want to partner with the Vineyard Church in Puerto Vallarta and make a difference for the Kingdom by reaching out to the poor and the under-resourced in this region.
